AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA

CORONER'S CERTIFICATE IN CASE

OF KENNETH WILHOITE,

Washington Man Killed by Train-High School Gives a Hop-General and Personal.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King St., Bell Telephone No. 106, ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 18, 1901.

Coroner William R. Purvis this morning viewed the remains of Kenneth B. Wilhoite of Washington, a brakeman on the Washington Southern railroad, who was run over and killed by a train of freight cars in the Pennsylvania railroad freight yard shortly past midnight last night, and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. The remains will be forwarded to Washingto this afternoon for interment. The unfortunate man was crushed under the wheels of twelve heavy cars. Both of his feet were cut off about the ankles and his body was terribly bruised in other places. As soon as his horrible plight was discovered by the trainmen the company's physician was summoned and the man was carried to the Alexandria Infirmary. Soon after arriving there he expired. Just how the accident occurred is not known, as there was no one with Wilhoite at the time. It is said this morning that a de-fective brake caused his fall between the cars. Another statement is that he lost his footing from some cause and fell. The body was carried to the undertaking rooms of W. Demaine & Sons, on King street. Wilhoite resided at No. 1108 Virginia avenue southwest, Washington. He was twenty-seven years of age and was recently married. The deceased had been in the em-

School last evening at McBurney's Hall proved a social event of much interest. The students were present in large numbers, and mary of their friends in this city were among the guests. Among the ladies present from a distance were: Miss Brooke of Annapolis, Md.; Miss McClelland of Washington, Miss Hodges of Annapolis, Miss Berkeley, Miss Mason, Miss Charring-ton and Miss Randolph of Virginia; Messrs. Angus Crawford and H. Worthington, from the University of Virginia, were among the guests. Messrs. Robert Knox, Craig Ansley, Dr. Thomas Cochran, Lloyd Uhler, Philip Knox, Clarence Janney, Frank Crockford and Basil Williamson were among the Alexandrians present. Robert Woodward Barnwell was chairman of the light committee on arrangements from joint committee on arrangements from Fairfax and Blackford literary societies.

The men were assessed $5 each. They were arrested by Sergt. Goods. The police came into certain evidence that that seemed to implicate Wise in a shooting affray which occurred recently in Cul-peper, and Chief Webster sent a telegram to the commonwealth attorney of that county notifying him that Wise was in custody. A negro named Adam Howard was also held for the Culpeper authorities on the charge of assaulting another negro named John Payne with a pistol. General Matters.

Mr. George Phillips, a well-known restdent of the first ward, died suddenly yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock at an advanced age at his home on Duke street between Pitt and Royal streets. Owing to declining health the deceased had been unable to engage in any active work for several years past. He was a bricklayer by trade. Mr. Phillips is survived by a CHERBOURG OR SOUTHAMPTON-BREMEN.

Interesting Celebration by Hancock Regiment, No. 1, U. V. U. Hancock Regiment, No. 1, Union Veterans' Union, celebrated its fifteenth anniversary last night at its rooms in Society Temple, corner of 5th and G streets northwest. A business meeting was held at 7 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock the doors were thrown open to its friends. Gen. R. G. Dyrenforth, commander-in-chief of the order, and his staff and Gen. J. F. Meacham, commander of the Division of the Potomac, and his staff were present, and the hall was, filled with the wives and daughters of the members of the regiment. Col. Frank T. Howe, commanding the regiment, presided, and in calling the assemblage to order spoke of the fact that Hancock Regiment was the parent regi-ment of the order; that from the small number of men who organized it fifteen years ago had grown a body of battle men now numbering over 150,000, scattered throughout the entire country. He spoke of the remarkable spread of the order with-in the past few years and attributed it in a large degree to the untiring energy and earnestness of the present commander-inchief. He also complimented the division commander for the ability he had displayed in his administration. He congratulated the members of the regiment on the prosperity it enjoyed, spoke of the high character of its members and the earnestness they displayed in their devotion to the principles of the order, and predicted that Hancock Regiment would continue to main-

An interesting program of speeches and music followed. Those who made addresses were Gen. R. G. Dyrenforth, who read an interesting sketch of the life of Gen. whom the regiment was named; Gen. J. F. Meacham, Gen. J. H. Hayes, Gen. E. B. Payne and Col. John Middleton. Those who contributed to the music and literary program were Mr. Jennings, who gave a mandolin solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jennings; Miss Jessie Good, who offered a humorous recitation; Misses Katie, Sarah and Marie Howe, who played banjo, guitar and piano trio; Arthur. a banjo, gultar and piano trio; Arthur. Middleton, who sang two bass solos; W. A. Morsell, who gave a couple of coon songs; Thos. J. Quigley, two tenor solos, and Miss Sweet, who recited Eugene Field's "Seein' Things at Night."

Refreshments were then served. The entertainment committee, to whom the success of the affair was largely due, consisted of Col. John Middleton, Capt. D. W. Beach and Capt. D. W. Glassie.
